ABOUT US

Claypole Village Hall is an early 20th century arts and crafts style building with beautiful vintage features, making it a great venue for community groups, activities, parties, fairs, events and family celebrations.

As well as the impressive main hall, which features a stage & servery/bar area, there are lovely outside features including beautiful formal gardens, a large paddock area, suitable for a marquee or bouncy castles, ample parking and a children's play area.

Facilities at Claypole Village Hall include:

- the main hall, full of vintage features
- a beautiful stage
- servery/bar area with premises licence
- audio/visual equipment (extra charge applies)
- ample parking
- paddock/field to the side for marquees/bouncy castles
- formal gardens
- children's play area
- disabled access
- baby changing facilities
- newly refurbished toilets
- plenty of tables and chairs
- on site coffee shop with catering options (by separate arrangement)

We can put you in touch with suppliers for the following:

- catering
- marquees
- licensed bar
- children's entertainment

WEDDINGS

Many couples have chosen Claypole Village Hall as the venue for their wedding reception. We offer a 48-hr hire option to allow plenty of time to set up/clear away either side of your special day.

The Hall's stunning features make it the perfect backdrop for your theme.

There are plenty of catering options locally who can supply food & drink and we can provide you with a list of recommended contacts.

Please get in touch if you would like to arrange to view the Hall and we'd be delighted to show you round.
